Performer Bios

Committed to the promotion of repertoire for soprano, flute and piano, members of the BLUE RIDGE TRIO have been performing in various combinations and presenting at regional and national conferences since 2005. As an all-female trio, the inspiration behind this program originated from an interest in researching and performing literature by female composers whose music is often lesser-known in the chamber ensemble genre. The unexpected challenge of locating repertoire by living American female composers inspired a recital program comprised of works written after 1950. This cross-section of accessible music highlights both the success and diversity of female composers over the last sixty years.

TABATHA EASLEY is Assistant Professor of Flute and Music History and Virginia Commonwealth University and is also Director of Richmond Flute Fest. An avid performer, teacher and clinician, she subs regularly with the Richmond Symphony and recently recorded 21st Century American Flute Sonatas with Catherine Garner. For more info visit www.tabathaeasley.com

CATHERINE H. GARNER received her DMA in Collaborative Arts from Eastman, MM from FSU, and BM from LSU. She is the founder of Music on a WOM, a monthly concert series dedicated to the performance of music by women composers. Dr. Garner is a pianist on the faculty at East Carolina University.

SUSAN HOCHMILLER is a versatile artist with performance experience in art song, oratorio, opera, musical theater and jazz. She earned her DMA and MM degrees from the Eastman School of Music. Formerly on the faculty at Gettysburg College, Dr. Hochmiller teaches voice, song literature, and advanced diction at Colorado State University.

COPPER FERREIRA has enjoyed a professional career that has taken her across North America and overseas. She completed a Masters in Clarinet Performance at Arizona State University under Dr. Bob Spring and a Masters of Music Theory at the University of Western Ontario. She has performed with the Brevard Chamber Orchestra (NC), Stratford Civic Orchestra (Ontario), Symphony New Brunswick, Symphony Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island Symphony, and most recently, the Colorado Ballet. She is currently on faculty at Colorado State University, teaching music theory and performing regularly as a freelance clarinetist.

Composer Bios

Composer Libby Larsen has written over 400 works spanning every genre, and is one of the most performed American composers today. A recipient of numerous awards, she received a Grammy in 1994 and the George Peabody Medal in 2010. <http://libbylarsen.com/>

Emma Lou Diemer, born in 1927, received her degrees from Yale and Eastman. A Fulbright winner, she composes for a many instruments, incorporating a neo-classic and neo-romantic style into her works. <http://www.emmaloudiemermusic.com/>

Judith Shatin, a composer, sound artist, arts advocate and educator, studied at Douglass College, Juilliard, and Princeton. She is currently a professor at the University of Virginia and the director of the Virginia Center for Computer Music. <http://www.judithshatin.com/>

Grammy award winning composer Jennifer Higdon, born in Brooklyn, received the Pulitzer Prize in 2010 for her Violin Concerto. An accomplished composer and flutist, she currently teaches at the Curtis Institute. <http://www.jenniferhigdon.com/>

Catherine McMichael is a graduate of the University of Michigan with degrees in piano performance and collaborative piano. A composer, arranger, and publisher, she lives in Saginaw, MI and is committed to making chamber music available to young musicians. <http://catherinemcmichael.com/>

Jennifer Brandon is a California- based composer of solo, vocal, choral, chamber, and orchestral music. She currently leads The Concert Singers in Los Angeles and also has an active performing career as a soprano. <http://www.jennibrandon.com/>
